Rev. George C. Wilding, D.D., pastor of Hedding M. E. church, Jersey City, N. J., will lecture at the North street church on Saturday evening on the subject "To the Top of Mt. Hood." Mr. Wilding served this church as pastor and has many friends who will be delighted to hear of his experiences on the Pacific slope.

The Conference Seminary.

Prof. B. W. Hutchinson, Ph.D., president of the West Virginia Conference Seminary, who paid a flying visit to this city, reports the seminary in a flourishing condition, and the outlook very encouraging. The new ladies hall has been a success and while it is a valuable addition to the institution, it is equally important in the ennobling influences it sends throughout this and other states. Dr. Hutchinson was the guest of Rev. C. B. Graham, who is one of the trustees. The death of the late Judge Samuel Woods, who had been a trustee from the incorporation of the first board is widely deplored and his place will be hard to fill.

ONE SHOT FIRED

In the Meeting of James A. Henry and Joseph D. Elson.

THERE WAS MUCH EXCITEMENT

When the Battle Came Off in the Disputed Territory on Chapline Street Yesterday Afternoon—Elson Objected to Henry Firing His Revolver from His Office and Fired at His Landlord, but the Shot was Wild and no Damage was Done to Either Side.

A personal difficulty that was almost a tragedy occurred yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock, on Chapline street, opposite the public building, in what is known as "Lawyers' Row."

The public is acquainted with the differences that have existed between Attorneys Joseph D. Elson and J. E. W. McCully. Several chapters of their efforts to defeat each other for the possession of the office room lately occupied by Mr. Elson, have been given in the newspapers. Not long ago, it will be remembered, a third figure entered the cast of characters in the person of James A. Henry, the real estate agent, who has charge of the building. He leased the room to McCully, but Elson refused to give possession and tied the matter up in a legal knot through proceedings in a squire's court.

Yesterday afternoon at the hour mentioned above, Elson found Henry in the room removing his effects. Elson became highly enraged and advanced on Henry with a revolver. He tried to shoot Henry but at the first attempt the cartridge did not explode and just as Elson pulled the trigger the second time, Henry caught his assailant's arm and the bullet went above his head through the wall and into the adjoining office, occupied by Justice Thompson.

The shot roused the neighborhood and soon several persons were on the scene and Henry and Elson, who were engaged in a desperate struggle, were separated. Before they had been parted, however, Henry had pushed his assailant through the large glass window at the front of the office, but without injury to either aside from a slight gash on Henry's hand.

Elson proceeded to the office of Squire Dunning, where he swore out a warrant for the arrest of Mr. Henry on the charge of assault, and still another charging trespassing. The squire set the hearing for April 23. Bond in the sum of $100 in each was required and given.

The Elson-Henry trouble broke out afresh in the evening, and though of a peaceful nature created some excitement, drawing crowds that blockaded the street from the office in question, 1527 Chapline street, to Squire Dunning's, on Sixteenth street. The excitement hinged around the serving of warrants on Mr. Henry. About 8 o'clock, Constable Matthew Bennett, whom Elson had appointed as his agent, approached Henry at the office, over which he was standing guard, and ordered him off the premises. Henry refused to go, whereupon Bennett deputized ex-Constables McLaughlin and Becker to enforce his orders. Though Bennett had no warrant, Henry went with him to Squire Dunning's office, and spent a few minutes trying to straighten things out.

In the meantime, Bennett had been industriously engaged in removing Elson's belongings from Squire Thompson's office into the disputed premises. Henry suddenly arrived, and observing Bennett's doings, ejected the constable and the furniture. This done, he barred the doors. Bennett returned to Squire Dunning's office and he and Becker swore out warrants against Henry for resisting an officer. Henry went back to the court room and again gave bond. He asked that the cases be set for a week later, which was done. The cases were set for the 28th inst., and Henry will be defendant to charges of assault and battery, peace warrant, trespassing, and resisting the officers.

At 9:30 o'clock there was a temporary calm and Henry was again guarding the office door. Henry, so far, has not preferred any charges against Elson, and the shooting incident will probably not figure, unless Henry changes his mind, as last night he said that he did not wish to prosecute Elson.

MAYER HEYMAN DEAD.

A Well Known Hebrew Citizen and Merchant Died Yesterday.

Yesterday, at 7:30 p. m., at his home, 1100 Chapline street, occurred the death of Mr. Mayer Heyman, in the seventy-fourth year of his age from a complication of diseases, after an illness of two weeks.

Mr. Heyman was one of Wheeling's veteran business men, having come here in 1842, from the then French province of Alsace. For over half a century he has been prominent in business circles, being engaged in the clothing business at the corner of Mai and Eleventh streets. In late years his son, Ralph, has been his business partner. The deceased has always borne a high reputation, and was unassuming and charitable.

He leaves one son and two daughters to mourn his demise. The funeral arrangements have not been completed.

THE NEW WAY.

A GREAT SUCCESS FOR FITTING ALL KINDS OF EYES WITH GLASSES.

Our new scientific method of examining the eyes and fitting glasses without putting in the eyes in the eye and making the patient blind for a week, or having them sit for hours looking at charts and trying to fit themselves until they become so bewildered they cannot tell what they can see. We fit the eyes for examination without depending on the patient and know when they are fitted correctly.

How About It!

Do you feel satisfied with yourself this morning? How about your Spring Suit? If you were among the many that bought their Suits here Saturday you are no doubt well pleased with yourself. If you are not, we'll give you another one for it or your money back. Some of the clothiers complain that we have set too fast a pace and that we cannot keep it up. If it was fast before, they will lose their breath this spring, for we have again quickened the pace wonderfully. You will find here the largest, richest and most stylish stock of Spring Suits that ever left any manufacturers' hands. We haven't left the tailors a leg to stand on. We long ago beat their prices by half. Now we have beat their style and workmanship. Stylish Spring Suits at $7.50 and $10, and beauties at $12 and $15.
